

New York University

"The four years I spent at St. Joseph by-the-Sea have been instrumental in my academic, social, and spiritual growth. The caring and devoted teachers go beyond the textbook to give lessons which resonate in every aspect of life. Sea has molded and shaped me into the person I am, and has ensured that I am on my way to accomplishing all of my future goals."

—Deanna Urciouli, Class of 2006

Deanna Urciouli was also offered Fordham University Loyola Scholarship and Tuition Award, the Manhattan College Presidential Scholarship, the Marist College Presidential Scholarship, The Marymount Manhattan Academic Excellence Award, the Rutgers University National ScholarshipMetit Award, and the Wagner College

Rensselaer Polytechnic University

"As a freshman, Sea was a building full of hope, potential, and possibilities. In four years it has become a family, a sense of belonging, achievement, honor, and esteem. The foundation I have been given at Sea, both academically and spiritually, has helped me prepare for the future and helped me grow as a person. St. Joseph by-the—Sea is much more than a school building, it is a family."

—Joseph Grimaldi, Class of 2006

Joseph Grimaldi is the recipient of the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute Rensselaer Medal Scholarship, the Principal's scholarship, the Presidential Scholarship, and the Jacobs Scholarship. He also received the A. J. Drexel Scholarship at Drexel University, the Merit Scholarship at the University of Buffalo, a Sperry Associates Federal Credit Union Scholarship, and a NYS Academic Excellence Scholarship.

Boston College

"The past four years have been the best of my life. The teachers are always willing to give their help and advice when you need it. My experience at Sea definitely influenced my decision to attend a Catholic college and is the foundation of my success."

—Anthony Cetta, Class of 2006

Cornell

"I attribute my success to both my family and my school. My Catholic education at Sea has not only provided me with academic knowledge but has helped to build character, morals, and a strong sense of responsibility. These qualities instilled at Sea will last a lifetime."

—Caitlyn Pirraglia, Class of 2006

Caitlyn Pirraglia is also the recipient of the College of New Jersey Merit Scholarship, the Fordham University Tuition Award and Loyola Scholarship, the Manhattan College Presidential Scholarship, the New York University Trustee Scholarship, the Rutgers University Merit Award, and the Villanova University Scholarship.
